

International College students Suan Sunandha Hospital received the annual health check for 2019 at the multi-purpose building , Nakhon Pathom Education Center

On March 21, 2019, the International College Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University Nakhon Pathom Provincial Education Center by the Student Development Division Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University organized the annual health check-up for the 1st year students by Nakarach Hospital at the multi-purpose building, Nakhon Pathom Education Center. In which The international college students received free medical examinations, including general health checkup, blood test, blood pressure check, and digital lung X-ray examination.

