On 30 April 2562, International College students Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University, the International Business Department held the Final Project seminar for IBP3321 Seminar in International Business Management in the topic of “Internet Addiction” at Room 410, International College, Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University, Nakhon Pathom Education Center.

In this seminar, the students presented the various aspects of using the internet that affect behaviors and health while also campaigning for students who attend the seminar to divide time for the use of the internet and balance it out with other activities.